SEWING SUPPLIES FOR REFUGEES! Deb Bendit is collecting sewing supplies and notions for classes for refugees who will be learning how to sew. If you have some basic sewing supplies (scissors, hand and machine needles, dressmaker pins, seam rippers, good quality newer thread, rotary cutters and rulers and mats, sewing boxes, irons, sewing machine oil, elastic, sew-in Velcro, buttons, snaps, etc.) that you have on hand and would like to donate, please see Deb or drop off in the labeled box in the sewing room. Deb's sister, Carolyn, refurbishes old sewing machines, and after completing the classes, the refugee will be able to take home her own machine and her supplies. Please help these women to be able to learn a new skill to help their families! Thank you! If you have a used sewing machine (1935 to present) that you would like to donate, talk to Deb.
