Pentecost: A Day for Celebration

Today, first and foremost, we worship our risen and living Savior, Jesus Christ. Additionally we celebrate the birthday of the Church, the Body of Christ. The list below will remind us of all the reasons we have to celebrate on this day especially.

We celebrate:

- The coming of the Holy Spirit, God's seal on his people
- The resurrection of Jesus; He's alive!!
- Jesus Christ, our Advocate at the right hand of God interceding for us
- The real presence of Christ by his Spirit and in his Body, the Church
- Jesus' love for fellowship with people over shared meals
- The gift of salvation: new eternal, abundant life in Christ
- The promise of Christ's return
- Our invitation to the wedding supper of the Lamb of God
- Christ's life on earth; tell stories about our experiences with Him
- Community, being part of God's family

This is how we remember Jesus when we gather around the Lord's Table in fellowship as we eat and drink. This is how we proclaim the Lord's death, resurrection and presence until He returns for us. Remember: the Lord's death implies his resurrection and his presence with us! Praise be to God for his indescribable gift!
