THANK YOU FROM PASTOR DOUG, JEN, LUKE, AND KATIE!

Nine years ago Doug and Jen were praying for direction because he knew that the building industry was not really where he was called to be. He felt God prompting him to take “a course” and from there started this journey of school and a new vocation that he really felt called to. We are thankful to be able to share these past seasons and this new season with you, our church family. Thank you for your discernment, blessing, and continued work as we follow God’s leading together. Thank you to everyone who worked so hard to make this past Sunday’s service and meal so great!

THANK YOU to all who helped set up and take down, one to one volunteers, special activities coordinators, and all who made donations to Special Friends Camp. We had a great week!

TO MY LOVING CHURCH FAMILY, thank you for your cards, calls, and prayers for Frank and me. I became ill about a month ago and was prescribed two prescriptions that nearly killed me. Today I am fine. Frank is participating in his church service so I am going to hear him. I will be back next Sunday as usual. Happy Father’s Day! –June Lykens Lantz, your organist.
