

Thy Kingdom Come

Pastor Doug Hinton

“At this point His disciples came, and they were amazed that He had been speaking with a woman, yet no one said, “What do You seek?” or, “Why do You speak with her?” So the woman left her waterpot, and went into the city and said to the men, “Come, see a man who told me all the things that I have done; this is not the Christ, is it?” They went out of the city, and were coming to Him.” John 4.27-30

I was raised in the church. In fact, I can't remember a time in my life where I was not connected to a local body. As a child, I attended Willow Street United Church of Christ. I went to Sunday School, was an acolyte, sang in the children's choir, and one of my best friends of the time was the pastor's son. In the summers, I traveled to Milroy to participate in church camp at Hartman Center. We sang songs, learned Bible stories and memorized Scriptures, sang camp songs and prayers, and hiked a mountain called The Knob.

After my parents' divorce as a teen, I attended the First Assembly of God in Columbia. The services and preaching differed from the UCC: services were longer, higher energy, and the preaching was louder and filled with emotion than I experienced in my early years. Baptized in the Susquehanna on the Wrightsville side as a teen, I helped lead the youth after I graduated high school. When Jen and I were married, we began to look for a place to bridge the gap of her Episcopalian background and my newfound AOG appreciation of worship and faith. We attended an UCC in Etown as it was familiar to me and she knew some members there. All this happened before coming to Hempfield COB.

Why bring this all up? Many of my experiences of God, faith, service, and love have been found within a local body of Christ. I wonder: is this how the woman at the well experienced God for most of her life? In the confines of the local temple or home, not much aware of Him beyond the space allotted for such awareness. Yet, her life completely changed when she encountered the living God in the midst of daily task: getting water in the middle of the day as to avoid the awkward stares or conversation from others when they gathered their water in the early morning because of her past and current living situation. There she was, as she'd been hundreds if not thousands of times before, seeking to be left alone and just go about her business. A Samaritan, already being unworthy because of her heritage, and a woman with five previous husbands: how could she approach a Holy and Almighty God? She knew herself and could hide nothing from Him; what hope might there be? Thankfully, it did not rest fully on her ability or worthiness because Jesus approached and met her.

Jesus sought her out. Not in the temple or on some holy hill, but in the familiar space of everyday chores. His kingdom was (and is) not restricted to a certain temple or hill or party or people or nation. He named her past without condemnation and still set her free from her sin, releasing the burden of shame to proclaim her greatest encounter.

Where do you encounter Christ in the everyday activities of life? To whom do you share His word, His message, His movement in your life? We pray, “Your Kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven,” but do we seek it out, call it out, name it in the midst of our work, our home, our travels? Do we practice Jesus's teachings, seeking to live in relationship with the Living and Resurrected Savior, so that others might be set free from sin and shame as well? Or are we content to practice our faith in the confines and safety of the local body and home? Christ continues to seek people in all walks of life: how are we partnering with Him?

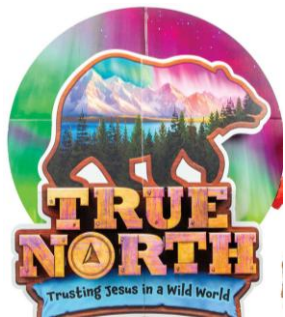

HCOB Children's Ministry Happenings

As the weather temperatures plunge in February, children's ministry is just heating up as planning for our favorite kid events is underway. The Easter Egg Hunt and VBS provide access for the community to join us for fun, fellowship, and hearing about Jesus. Mark your calendars for Saturday, April 12 at 10 AM for the Easter Egg Hunt. If you can't join us, we would love for you to team up with us. A variety of opportunities are available such as praying, greeting visitors, donating candy or prizes, helping to stuff the eggs, hiding eggs, and inviting your neighbors, families, and friends.

East Petersburg neighbors and friends are also invited to our VBS this summer, June 8th through June 12th. Our Vacation Bible School theme this year is True North: Trusting Jesus in a Wild World. This VBS will guide kids through an Alaskan adventure to show kids that Jesus is a faithful friend that we can always trust. We are so excited to share the Good News with kids.

Kids Connect ~ Moms Connect will begin in March on Wednesdays from 9:30-11 AM. Register on the church website if you're interested in participating. We will meet the following dates: March 5, March 19, April 2, April 16, and April 30.

SAVE THE DATE – June 8-12, 2025.

Messages in February

February 2

"Forgive your brother or sister from your heart."

MATTHEW 8:35

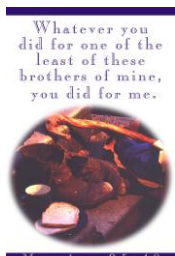

Forgiveness and the Kingdom

Matthew 18:21-35

Pastor: Doug Hinton

Forgiveness and the Kingdom of God...how do we practice forgiveness? Let's take a step back: do we carry resentment, contempt, or pain for certain people in our lives? Do we hold grudges or gossip, work together against another? In January, we recognized that an attribute of the kingdom of God is grace: no matter how many hours in the day the workers completed, they all received the same pay. So, what role does forgiveness play in the Kingdom of God? How do we truly live it out among one another: those we agree with and those we do not? In this parable, Jesus speaks of two servants of the same lord, their actions, reactions, and consequences among them. To whom do we relate? How can practicing forgiveness make way and room for the Kingdom?

February 9

Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me.

MATTHEW 25:40

The Kingdom: Word & Action

Matthew 21:28-32; Matthew 25:31-46; James 2:18

Pastor: Doug Hinton

Billy Sunday once said, "Going to church doesn't make you a Christian any more than going to a garage makes you an automobile." What makes a person a Christian than? Serving so many hours a week? Reading Scripture daily? Voting for the right party? Flying the correct flags or promoting the righteous slogans? Jesus tells the story of two sons, their father's request, the respective responses, and their actions following those. What can we learn from this parable? How might it apply to the church or even our culture today? What will be our response beyond our words?

February 16

But as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit ...

Matthew 13:23

How Does Your Gard Grow?

Matthew 13:24-30; 36-43; Acts 17:24-31

Pastor: Geoff Davis

How can we live in the Kingdom of God when good and bad people live together? What should we make of God's judgement? Should we live in fear and anxiety? What should we do to be good citizens of God's kingdom?

Jesus continues to explain the Kingdom of God by using parables. This "earthly story with a heavenly meaning" addresses one of the darker sides of ancient Israel horticultural sabotage. When one farmer wanted to harm another, he would sow bearded darnel into their wheat. Bearded darnel is a deadly weed that mimics wheat. Before they grow the two plants are identical. But as they grow, their fruit is different and is poisonous – in large doses even able to kill a person.

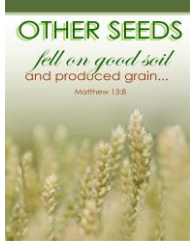

Why did Jesus use this familiar practice to teach his followers about living in God's kingdom? What's his message for us?

February 23

You Reap What You Sow

Matthew 13:1-17

Pastor: Laura Meiser

As he contemplated how to explain the kingdom of God, Jesus understood the power of story and, perhaps a good object lesson. Surrounded by crowds and his disciples, Jesus stepped into a boat, assumed the posture of a teacher rather than a king (ie, he sat down...) and launched into a narrative of a sower and four types of soil. Jesus makes it clear; while God does not desire to remain hidden from his people, there are forces at work that would prefer we not receive his Word or apply his teaching to our lives. As we explore this passage, I wonder...what soil is prevalent in the proving ground of our hearts? What is our part in being sure the seed of God's teaching lands on fertile soil, fully received, and ready to be nurtured by the power of the Holy Spirit?

The Quilting and Sewing ministries at Hempfield COB

For many decades, Hempfield Church of the Brethren has had some type of sewing groups. The earliest sewers sewed “layettes” for babies, as well as making comforters and quilts. The days of making baby clothing are far gone, but Hempfield continues to have a wonderful comforter ministry, and our quilters support the Brethren Disaster Relief Auction.

Any of you who may be available on the second Wednesday mornings of each month are invited to come and join us, beginning at 8:00 AM to 11:00, and put together comforters with us. Mary Ellen McEvoy ALSO is always looking for people to knot the smaller baby comforters at their homes during the month. If you are interested in either of these, please get in touch with Mary Ellen... she is very happy to show you what to do! On all of the other Wednesday mornings, also from 8:00 to 11:00, there is a small but mighty group of ladies who hand quilt. Arlene Slotter creates the vast majority of quilt tops that the group has quilted. Hand quilting is a very slow process, and it is not unusual for the group to take five to six months to complete a queen or king size quilt. Deb Bendit is in charge of the quilting ministry here at Hempfield, and if you would like to learn how to quilt, or if you know how and are interested in joining the quilting group, please make sure to contact her. Please pray for all of the sewers and quilters as they continue these ministries, and if God is calling you to help in some way with one or both groups, please see Mary Ellen McEvoy or Deb Bendit for more information.

The Men's Bible Study

We will be looking at Scriptures around Biblical manhood

Wednesdays, 6pm, The Gathering Place.

As we gather, we'll read through the Scriptures (and I encourage you to read them beforehand), wrestle with questions we may have, look at the context of the passages, discuss what we understand, pray for one another, continue to get to know each other, and see how we can grow into the men God calls us to be.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Current Study...

The Book Acts tells the story of the early church. Unlike works of fiction, this narrative offers a factual, historical account. The Book of Acts chronicles the beginning of the Church and the incredible growth that resulted. Empowered by the Holy Spirit, these early believers took the Gospel to new lands. As God worked through His people then, we are charged with the same task the early believers received, to be a living witness of the gospel to the world.

Hempfield COB is celebrating 50 years as an amazing congregation this year. Many exciting things are being planned to help make this year a special time of remembering and looking forward. Check here for exciting things to be aware of and involved in!

“Continuing Forward for the Glory of God and Our Neighbor’s Good.”

Did you know... Hempfield Church of the Brethren is turning 50 years old! We will celebrate this milestone during the next months with some extra-special events.

Our church “Pictorial” will be given to each family (depending on the printer’s schedule) at the end of the year or beginning of 2025.

A beautiful tree has been promised to celebrate our 50th anniversary, and it will be planted at the proper time during the next year. We hope that this will be the cornerstone of a future prayer and meditation garden.

Additional activities are being planned for the next months, and it is our prayer that you will joyfully join in all these events with our church family, and prayerfully invite some friends who might be searching for Jesus and a church home.

who's who

Let's meet some of the individuals who make up this community called Hempfield Church of the Brethren.

Del & Mary Ann Kautz

Mary Ann and I visited HCOB sometime after I resigned from my position of lead pastor at Millersville Mennonite Church after 23 years in that position. Since both of us enjoy singing, we were attracted by the choir. It was also important to us to become involved in a congregation where numerous scriptures were presented to the congregation during the worship gathering. As others have attested, we experienced meeting many friendly people with whom we quickly became acquainted after returning a number of times for the worship gathering. We were invited to join the choir by some choir members and readily accepted.

We are the parents of four daughters and sons-in-law as well as seven grandchildren, including a set of triplets. Our second year of marriage we spent living in Germany and Switzerland as part of a Mennonite cultural exchange. In my late twenties I began part time college studies, which became full time studies with a German major at Millersville University. It became apparent to us before I graduated that the Lord was directing me to attend Eastern Mennonite Seminary to attain a Master of Divinity degree.

With a diploma from Thaddeus Stevens Trade School and more than a dozen years of experience in the carpentry trade, I was able to provide an income for our family while attending both university and seminary. Mary Ann had worked as a dental assistant for a few years before we our first child was born. We agreed that she would be a homemaker and stay-at-home mom. She was also good with typing and assisted me with typing the finished copies of many of my written assignments.

During my senior year at seminary, I was called to accept a pastoral assignment at Millersville Mennonite Church. The congregation had a large group of elderly people with whom I became acquainted through frequent visitation. Hospital visits did not intimidate me since I had spent my two 1W years in a hospital in Philadelphia. The congregation offered me a sabbatical, which gave me the time I needed to attain a Doctor of Ministry degree in worship studies.

We live on a 2 ½ acre farmette in Manor Township. We've had chickens, dogs, cats, goats, and currently have two ponies and some rabbits. The goats wore Swiss calf bells, which filled the neighborhood with unscripted music. After resigning my pastorate, I earned a CDL and began driving 18-wheelers for a few years. When I retired, it wasn't long before the deacons invited us to join their team to help shepherd our congregation. As deacons we can practice the pastoral skills we acquired during our years of ministry. We enjoy visitation, which provides us a wonderful way to become better acquainted with people in our congregation.

We desire God's richest blessings for our congregation as all of us grow together faithfully representing God's Kingdom in our community.
